Proposal

As we all know, innovation is no stranger to healthcare. I would like to develop a plan that will build confidence, ensure success and build better patient outcomes for our fellows.

Literature Review

Traditional learning has always been adequate in educational objectives, but blended learning provides more opportunities to optimize a student's ability to learn, which in turn, increases their self-confidence, all while experiencing interactive studies with more

positivity

Outline

I have created a timeline that I feel we could accomplish and be successful with in the implantation of blended learning in Graduate Medical Education. As with anything new, there will be challenges but I feel we can succeed and provide a better education for all.
